

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Occasions Catering of Charlotte has been acquired by Marcus Penick, son of Terrace Restaurants' founder, Stewart Penick, according to an announcement today by the Penicks and Occasions founder, Melissa Swanson.

"We are eager to continue serving Occasions Catering's corporate, casual, social, wedding, and family clients," Marcus Penick said, "and we plan to significantly expand our catering services, especially throughout the great Charlotte area where we have so many friends and customers.

"The catering industry is forecast to experience steady growth over the next five years as consumer spending and corporate profits increase and more and more people seek personalized menus and well-balanced diets," Penick added. "We are excited to have a chance to be part of that growth."

Operating as Occasions Catering, the new catering operation will share headquarters with Terrace Restaurants at 5950 Fairview Road in Charlotte.
